Market Review, Outlook & Strategy

Global equities ended the month higher even though it was well off the intra-month highs, on concerns over rising bond yields. The US 10-year Treasury bond yield jumped +32bps to 1.4%, driven by expectations of stronger economic recovery as the vaccination program gained traction in the US and globally. Macroeconomic data in the US was strong during the month with falling initial jobless claims as well as robust US manufacturing and services PMI numbers. Fed Chair Powell also guided current accommodative policies will remain until the economy reaches maximum employment and inflation is likely to stay at or below its 2% target through 2023. In commodities, oil prices rose sharply during the month due to the extreme weather in Texas. Growth in new Covid-19 cases is showing some signs of plateauing in the US at around 70k/day; while some regions witnessed a sudden surge. On the brighter side, the two-dose vaccine developed by Pfizer and BioNTech appears to be quite effective based on the inoculation experience in Israel while J&J's single-shot vaccine is the third to get US FDA approval.

Moving on to Malaysia, we received the first shipment of the Covid-19 vaccine on 21st February and the government also brought forward the vaccination programme to 24th February instead of the originally scheduled date of 26th February. This led to rotation back into the recovery names such as Genting, the brewers and some mall Reits. The PM also launched The MyDigital initiative and blueprint (Malaysia's digital transformation programme) during the last week of February. In the blueprint, a government special purpose vehicle will invest RM15b to roll out 5G in stages from end-21, ahead of Jendela's earlier target. Malaysia's 4Q20 GDP came in weak at -3% yoy, bringing full year 2020 GDP -5.6% (lower than BNM's floor of -5.5%).

For the month of February, retailers were net buyers at +RM2.0bn (USD493m) whilst local institutions were net sellers at RM1.7bn (USD420m). Foreign institutions remained net sellers at RM0.9bn (USD222m). Retailers and local institutions participation accounted for 36.5% and 27.3% of the value traded, with foreign institutions the remaining 15.9%. The FBM KLCI continued to underperform the broader market with a mom performance of +0.7% in February. FBM Shariah, Emas and Small Cap indices were up by +0.8% mom, +2.2% mom and +7.9% mom respectively.

Despite the recent market weakness, we do not expect rising bond yields to halt the equity market's strong performance, provided it is a gradual increase and is driven by improved economic outlook rather than hawkish central bank policy. Markets will also be following closely the approval of US' fiscal package potentially worth around US$1.9trillion in March. Investors will also be looking out for the upcoming OPEC meeting in March and China's annual parliamentary meeting on 5th March onwards where China is expected to announce its key goals for 2021 and the next five-year economic development plan. Locally, the Monetary Policy Committee meeting will be held on 4th of March where consensus is currently divided on a 25bps cut. We will continue to be invested in both Covid-19 and recovery beneficiaries, skewing more towards the recovery theme.

Market Review, Outlook & Strategy - Fixed Income Market

U.S. Treasury ("UST") in the month of February saw significant spikes in yield as reflation expectations took centre stage amongst the investment community. The 5, 10 and 30year tenor increased by 31, 34 and 32 bps m-o-m respectively as a result of such expectations. Long end of the curve was hit comparably more with 2y-10y and 5y-30y spread reaching its highest level respectively since 2017 and 2015. The reflation induced sell offs seemed impervious to continued reassurances of dovish policies by the Federal Reserve ("Fed") and lacklustre economic data. CPI data released in mid-February came in tame at 1.4%, below market expectations of 1.5% and considerably short of the Fed's target of 2.0%. Confidence in recovery was likely derived from an increase in oil prices which reached above USD60 per barrel, highest since January 2020 and Biden's USD1.9 trillion stimulus bill which passed the house in end February and scheduled for Senate voting in the first week of March.

On the local front, govies yields were seen tracking the UST by and large with 10, 15 and 30-year MGS tenor increasing by 38, 49 and 36 bps m-o-m respectively. The 10y MGS benchmark closed at 3.09%, an eight-month high with the 3y-10y spread widening to 110bps, an 11-year high. Short dated tenor remained relatively grounded by near term caution with the 3-year yield increasing at a considerably lower magnitude of 10bps m-o-m. The steep increase in longer tenor yield came in despite bigger than expected 4Q2020 GDP contraction of 3.4% versus expectation of 3.1%. Apart from the increase in UST yield, lower than expected CPI contraction of 0.2% against the estimated of 0.8%-1.0% also partly drove the increase in govies yields.

The corporate bond segment which typically lags the movement in govies saw AAA spread against comparable govies decreasing. The spread 3-, 5-, 10, and 15-year AAA tenor decreased by 13, 17, 11 and 12bps m-o-m respectively. Quasi government and AAA bonds continue to make up the bulk of traded bonds as demand for liquidity remains heightened. Sector wise, defensive bonds from the power and energy sector continued to be a staple in daily bonds trade during the month. Some prominent new issuances during the month are Danainfra (RM2.2 billion, GG), Maybank (RM1.0 billion, AA1) and PASB (RM800.0 million, AAA).

Given how the local govies have been following suit the increase in UST yields, expectations or sentiments pertaining to the US economic recovery warrants attention. Chief among factors influencing such sentiments will be the Senate voting on Biden's USD1.9 trillion USD stimulus early March. Domestically, all eyes will on the MPC sitting scheduled on 4th March. Going forward, pace of economic recovery would rely on among others, the timeline and efficacy of the recent vaccine rollout which took place at the end of February. The heavy supply pipeline in March for both govies and govt-guaranteed papers are expected to keep bond yields elevated. In view of the above, we remain defensive on our portfolio construction.
