

HLA Secure Fund (HLASF)

November 2022

Fund Features

1. Investment Objective

To provide investors with steady and consistent return over a long-term investment horizon by investing into local and global fixed income securities and equities.

2. Investment Strategy & Approach

The strategy is to provide investors an affordable access into a diversified investment portfolio with a mixture of equities and fixed income instrument. The fund will invest primarily in fixed income instruments such as bonds, money market instruments, repo and deposits with financial institutions that provide regular income as well as in high dividend yield stocks to enhance the fund's returns. The asset allocation decision between fixed income instruments and equity is decided after considering the fixed income and equity market outlook over the medium to long-term horizon. Initially the fund will invest by feeding into Affin Hwang Select Income Fund ("Target Fund"), with the option to increase the number of funds or replace Affin Hwang Select Income Fund with other fund(s) in future. The Target Fund will invest primarily in Asia Pacific excluding Japan companies.

3. Asset Allocation

The fund shall invest a minimum 70% of the NAV in Fixed Income Instruments and maximum 30% of NAV in equities.

4. Target Market

The fund is suitable for investors who are relatively conservative and wish to have a steady and stable return that meets their retirement needs.

Market Review, Outlook & Strategy relevant to Target Fund

US equities climbed higher as tentative signs of inflation peaking and dovish commentary from the US Federal Reserve (Fed) spurred gains. The S&P 500 index climbed 5.4% as core CPI came below consensus forecasts fuelling hopes that the Fed would start to pause its tightening cycle. The tech-heavy Nasdaq gauge similarly rose 4.4% in November as bond yields fell.

Minutes of the Fed policy meeting in November also showed that most policymakers were in favour of slowing down the pace of interest rate hikes. Bond markets are pricing-in a 50 bps hike in December 2022 and potentially smaller rate hikes for the rest of 2023. The current terminal rate suggests that the Fed rate is expected to peak at 5.0% in 2023. In Asia, the broader MSCI Asia ex-Japan soared 18.7% as the US dollar weakened. China stocks rallied with the Shanghai Shenzhen CSI 300 index up 9.8% buoyed by reopening optimism. Beijing announced several new measures to tweak its strict zero-COVID strategy.

These include an adjustment of categorisation of COVID risk areas to "high" and "low" - eliminating a "medium" category in a bid to minimise the number of people caught up in control measures. Authorities also shortened the quarantine period by two days and will also end its policy to identify "secondary" close contacts.

Over the mid to long-term, China is expected to stick to its reopening path with the government unveiling a 20-point plan to loosen its zero-COVID policy. However, any measure would be gradual in nature as China's healthcare system may not be prepared for an abrupt reopening. Volatility is expected to persist until we can see a sustainable reopening of China and credit demand returning.

On the domestic front, the benchmark KLCI rose 2.0% as a nail biting political impasse reached a resolution with the appointment of Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim as Malaysia's 10th Prime Minister.

Anwar will now lead a unity government comprising the main coalitions of Pakatan Harapan ("PH"), Barisan Nasional ("BN"), Gabungan Parti Sarawak ("GPS"), Gabungan Rakyat Sabah ("GRS") as well as support of member of parliaments from Muda, Warisan and other independents.

With a second shot at power, PH is unlikely to repeat the same mistakes and policy flip-flops that plagued its first tenure especially with Anwar now firmly holding the reins. Channel checks with party officials also reveal an acknowledgement of the need to be more practical and nuanced in setting policy direction as well as communicating them. With low foreign positioning and domestic funds highly cashed-up, any incremental positives will drive market performance as more clarity emerges.

On local fixed income, the 10-year MGS yield fell 24 bps to end the month at 4.11%. As widely expected, Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) raised the OPR by 25bps on the back of a strong recovery and robust domestic demand. Expectations are that BNM would normalize the monetary policy by another 1 or 2 times or 25-50bps next year on the back of still positive economic growth prospect as well as to manage demand driven inflationary pressures.

Those are the actual returns in the past eight (8) years, or since inception if shorter, and are strictly the performance of the investment-linked fund. Thus, the returns are not earned on the actual premium paid of the investment-linked product.

Notice: Past performance of the fund is not an indication of its future performance.

The fund was only launched on 14 February 2013. The actual investment returns are calculated based on unit price from 14 February 2013 to 31 December 2013.

Investment Risks

All investments carry risks. Policy Owners must be prepared to accept certain degree of risk associated with this Investment. The following are the non-exhaustive list of risks associated to this fund.

- 1. Market Risk
Market risk stems from the fact that there are other economy-wide perils, which threaten all businesses. It is mainly caused by uncertainties in the economy, political and social environment.
- 2. Liquidity Risk
Liquidity risk is the risk that the fund invested cannot be readily sold and converted into cash. This may arise when the trading volume is low and/or where there is a lack of demand for the security.
- 3. Country Risk
The foreign investment of a fund may be affected by the political & economic conditions of the country which the investments are made.
- 4. Currency Risk
This risk is associated with investments that are denominated in foreign currencies. Fluctuation in foreign exchange rates will have an impact on the value of the funds.
- 5. Concentration Risk
This risk is associated with a feeder fund whereby the investments of such fund are not diversified. A feeder fund invests mainly into another collective investment scheme.

HLA Secure Fund (HLASF)

Risk Management

The company has in place its Authorized Investment Framework which forms part of the Risk Management process. The authority framework covers the nature and scope of the investment authority that is exercisable by various parties in managing the Company's investments. The potential investment risks that are taken into consideration in managing the fund include economic conditions, liquidity, qualitative and quantitative aspects of the securities. The investment manager(s) have put in place the following controls to reduce the risks through:

- having a flexible tactical asset allocation
- investing in a wide range of companies across different sectors
- setting prudent investment limits on various exposures
- taking into account the liquidity factor in selecting securities
- engaging in the hedging of foreign currency exposure where appropriate

Basis of Unit Valuation

- The assets of every fund are to be valued to determine the value at which units of a particular fund can be liquidated or purchased for investment purposes.
- The unit price of a unit of a fund shall be determined by the Company but in any event shall not be less than the value of fund of the relevant fund (as defined below), divided by the number of units of the given fund in issue on the business day before the valuation date, and the result adjusted to the nearest one hundredth of a cent.
- The maximum value of any asset of any fund shall not exceed the following price:
 - The last transacted market price at which those assets could be purchased or sold on the business day before the valuation date; or
 - In the case of securities for which market values are not readily available, the price at which, in our Investment Manager's opinion, the asset may have been purchased on the business day before the valuation date; plus any expenses which would have been incurred in its acquisition.
- To ensure fair treatment to all unit holders, the cost of acquiring and disposing of assets is recouped by making a transaction cost adjustment to the net asset value per unit.

Exceptional Circumstances

The Company reserves the right to defer the payment of benefits (other than death benefit) under this Policy for a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date the payment would have been normally effected if not for intervening events such as temporary closure of any Stock Exchange in which the fund is invested which the Company, in its discretion, may consider exceptional.
