

HLA Secure Fund (HLASF)

Jan 2021

Fund Features

1. Investment Objective

To provide investors with steady and consistent return over a long-term investment horizon by investing into local and global fixed income securities and equities.

2. Investment Strategy & Approach

The strategy is to provide investors an affordable access into a diversified investment portfolio with a mixture of equities and fixed income instrument. The fund will invest primarily in fixed income instruments such as bonds, money market instruments, repo and deposits with financial institutions that provide regular income as well as in high dividend yield stocks to enhance the fund's returns. The asset allocation decision between fixed income instruments and equity is decided after considering the fixed income and equity market outlook over the medium to long-term horizon. Initially the fund will invest by feeding into Affin Hwang Select Income Fund ("Target Fund"), with the option to increase the number of funds or replace Affin Hwang Select Income Fund with other fund(s) in future.

3. Asset Allocation

The fund shall invest a minimum 70% of the NAV in Fixed Income Instruments and maximum 30% of NAV in equities.

4. Target Market

The fund is suitable for investors who are relatively conservative and wish to have a steady and stable return that meets their retirement needs.

Market Review, Outlook & Strategy relevant to Target Fund

Global equities started on a strong note in 2021 buoyed by continued policy easing and global vaccine roll-outs, before succumbing to some market jitters following the GameStop mania. The S&P 500 closed 0.63% lower as investors' nerves were frayed over the retail frenzy in markets. Asian fared better with the MSCI Asia ex-Japan index up 4.48% in January as the region gains better control over the pandemic and sees gradual recovery in economic activities. GameStop a video game retailer listed in the US was on everyone's radar last month as its share price vaulted to stratospheric highs. Urged on by bullish posts in online forum Reddit, retail traders ganged up to take on hedge funds who were shorting GameStop. Retail investors drove up the share price of GameStop causing a short squeeze which rattled hedge funds. In other news, the Biden administration are working to move ahead with the US$1.9 trillion COVID-19 relief proposal via a budget reconciliation process; which essentially allows any bill – crafted within a set of strict parameters – to be passed in the Senate with a simple majority of 51 votes, as opposed to the 60 votes needed to overcome any objection to the proposal.

So far, we see the buying frenzy only concentrated on specific stocks and more recently on silver which have bearish bets. However, we've already seen signs of normalisation as the ammunition runs out. Thereafter, prices should settle and revert back to fundamentals. Meanwhile, earnings season has continued to trickle in which have so far beat expectations. In the US, 37.0% of companies in the S&P 500 index have reported results. Out of this, 82.0% of companies have beaten expectations. Similar in Asia, we are seeing upward earnings revisions on an aggregate basis. Looking at fund flows, global equities continued to attract inflows despite the market weakness last week. For the week ending 27 January 2021, global equities drew another US$23 billion of inflows. On a YTD basis, inflows into global equities have reached US$80 billion this year.

On the domestic front, the local market stayed weak with the benchmark KLCI closing 3.74% lower as rising COVID-19 cases in the country dampened sentiment. Attempts by local retail investors to drive up the share price of rubber glove stocks being shorted such as Top Glove also sputtered. Drawing inspiration from the GameStop mania, retail investors in the country teamed up to start a new online forum in Reddit called "BursaBets" as well as Telegram chatrooms to replicate the same success on the local bourse. A short squeeze scenario will not be easy to emulate in Malaysia given that short-selling is regulated in the country as well as a low free float of shares that can be shorted. Daily COVID-19 infections reached chilling new highs in the country of over 5,000 cases last week. Government officials have assured that will be no shutdown of economic activities despite rising cases. The movement control order was also recently extended to 18 February.

Investment Risks

All investments carry risks. Policy Owners must be prepared to accept certain degree of risk associated with this Investment. The following are the non-exhaustive list of risks associated to this fund.

1. Market Risk

Market risk stems from the fact that there are other economy-wide perils, which threaten all businesses. It is mainly caused by uncertainties in the economy, political and social environment.

2. Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the fund invested cannot be readily sold and converted into cash. This may arise when the trading volume is low and/or where there is a lack of demand for the security.

3. Country Risk

The foreign investment of a fund may be affected by the political & economic conditions of the country which the investments are made.

4. Currency Risk

This risk is associated with investments that are denominated in foreign currencies. Fluctuation in foreign exchange rates will have an impact on the value of the funds.

5. Concentration Risk

This risk is associated with a feeder fund whereby the investments of such fund are not diversified. A feeder fund invests mainly into another collective investment scheme.

Risk Management

The company has in place its Authorized Investment Framework which forms part of the Risk Management process. The authority framework covers the nature and scope of the investment authority that is exercisable by various parties in managing the Company's investments. The potential investment risks that are taken into consideration in managing the fund include economic conditions, liquidity, qualitative and quantitative aspects of the securities. The investment manager(s) have put in place the following controls to reduce the risks through:

- a) having a flexible tactical asset allocation
- b) investing in a wide range of companies across different sectors
- c) setting prudent investment limits on various exposures
- d) taking into account the liquidity factor in selecting securities
- e) engaging in the hedging of foreign currency exposure where appropriate

Basis of Unit Valuation

- 1. The assets of every fund are to be valued to determine the value at which units of a particular fund can be liquidated or purchased for investment purposes.
- 2. The unit price of a unit of a fund shall be determined by the Company but in any event shall not be less than the value of fund of the relevant fund (as defined below), divided by the number of units of the given fund in issue on the business day before the valuation date, and the result adjusted to the nearest one hundredth of a cent.
- 3. The maximum value of any asset of any fund shall not exceed the following price:
  - a) The last transacted market price at which those assets could be purchased or sold on the business day before the valuation date; or

HLA Secure Fund (HLASF)

b) In the case of securities for which market values are not readily available, the price at which, in our Investment Manager's opinion, the asset may have been purchased on the business day before the valuation date;

plus any expenses which would have been incurred in its acquisition.

4. To ensure fair treatment to all unit holders, the cost of acquiring and disposing of assets is recouped by making a transaction cost adjustment to the net asset value per unit.

Exceptional Circumstances

The Company reserves the right to defer the payment of benefits (other than death benefit) under this Policy for a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date the payment would have been normally effected if not for intervening events such as temporary closure of any Stock Exchange in which the fund is invested which the Company, in its discretion, may consider exceptional.
