Market Review, Outlook & Strategy relevant to Target Fund

In September, the local index traded on a narrow band with the FBMKLCI and FBM100 closed lower (mom) by -1.0% and -0.8% respectively, while FBMS was marginally higher by 0.4. The key sectors that dragged down the FBMKLCI were the finance and technology sectors. Foreigners turned net sellers for the month, reversing earlier buying trend, with a net sold position of RM737 million as geo-political tensions between the US and North Korea dampened investors' sentiment. Average daily value traded on Bursa rose 30% mom to RM2.5bn.

Commodities posted strong performance in September with WTI crude oil hit a new 2017 high, topped US$52 a barrel for the first time in four months, continuing a rally fueled by improving demand and expectations that producers will extend output cuts. CPO meanwhile was down 0.4% as inventory showed an increase in September.

MYR was weaker against the greenback (-1.2%).

Market Outlook & Fund Strategy

We continue to stay selective with a defensive portfolio strategy with stock picking remains key for outperformance. We continue to favor sectors that are showing solid earnings growth such as technology, construction, export-oriented and consumer stocks.

We continue to advocate a defensive portfolio strategy and prefer companies driven by resilient earnings with exposure to selective themes like USD beneficiaries (exporters), beneficiaries of rising foreign direct investment, GLC reform/restructuring plays, domestic consumption and infrastructure.

Investment Risks

All investments carry risks. Policy Owners must be prepared to accept certain degree of risk associated with this investment. The following are the detailed explanation of the risk associated to this fund.

1. Market Risk

Market risk stems from the fact that there are other economy-wide perils, which threaten all businesses. It is mainly caused by uncertainties in the economy, political and social environment.

2. Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the fund invested cannot be readily sold and converted into cash. This may arise when the trading volume is low and/or where there is a lack of demand for the security.

3. Credit Risk

This refers to the possibility that the issuer of a security will not be able to make timely payments of interest or principal repayment on the maturity date. The default may lead to a fall in the value of the funds.

4. Interest Rate Risk

The level of interest rates has an impact on the value of investments. Any increase in rates will lead to a fall in the value of securities, thus affecting the value of the funds.

5. Country Risk

The foreign investment of a fund may be affected by the political & economic conditions of the country which the investments are made.

6. Currency Risk

This risk is associated with investments that are denominated in foreign currencies. Fluctuation in foreign exchange rates will have an impact on the value of the funds.

7. Concentration Risk

This risk is associated with a feeder fund whereby the investments of such fund are not diversified. A feeder fund invests mainly into another collective investment scheme.

Risk Management

The Company has in place its Authorized Investment Framework which forms part of the Risk Management process. The authority framework will cover the nature and scope of the investment authority that is exercisable by various parties in managing the Company's investments. Besides this, sensitivity and stress testing is conducted to inform the Company's management the profit & loss profiles of their investments under different pre-defined risk scenarios and the necessary action to be taken if the potential losses exceed the Company's risk tolerance level.

Basis of Unit Valuation

- The assets of every fund are to be valued to determine the value at which units of a particular fund can be liquidated or purchased for investment purposes.
- The unit price of a unit of a fund shall be determined by the Company but in any event shall not be less than the value of fund of the relevant fund (as defined below), divided by the number of units of the given fund in issue on the business day before the valuation date, and the result adjusted to the nearest one hundredth of a cent.
- The maximum value of any asset of any fund shall not exceed the following price:
 - The last transacted market price at which those assets could be purchased or sold on the business day before the valuation date; or
 - In the case of securities for which market values are not readily available, the price at which, in our Investment Manager's opinion, the asset may have been purchased on the business day before the valuation date; plus any expenses which would have been incurred in its acquisition.
- To ensure fair treatment to all unit holders, the cost of acquiring and disposing of assets is recouped by making a transaction cost adjustment to the net asset value per unit.

Exceptional Circumstances

The Company reserves the right to defer the payment of benefits (other than death benefit) under this Policy for a period not exceeding six (6) months from the date the payment would have been normally effected if not for intervening events such as temporary closure of any Stock Exchange in which the fund is invested which the Company, in its discretion, may consider exceptional.
