 - (v) fifthly, any surplus thereafter remaining shall be attributable to the holders of the RPS and ordinary shares on a pari passu basis and shall be paid to the holders pro rata on the amount of par value paid-up in respect of RPS (ie RM0.01) and ordinary shares (ie RM1.00) held by each holder.
- 6. If, by the conditions of allotment of any share, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being and from time to time shall be the registered holder of the share, or his legal personal representatives. Share paid by instalments
- 7. No person shall exercise any rights of a Member until his name shall have been entered in the Register of Members and shall have paid all calls and other moneys for the time being due and payable on any share held by him whether alone or jointly with any other person. Exercise of rights of members
- 8. No person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trusts, or assignment and the Company shall not be bound by or required to recognise any equitable, contingent, future, or partial interest in any share or any right whatsoever in respect of any share other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder, except as by this Constitution otherwise expressly provided or as by the Act or pursuant to any order of Court. No trusts recognised
- 9. In addition to all other powers of paying commissions, the Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 80 of the Act of applying its shares or cash, either directly or indirectly, in paying commissions to persons for the purpose of subscribing or agreeing to subscribe or procuring or agreeing to procure shares of the Company, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid and the number of shares which a person has agreed for commission to subscribe shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act and the payment of commission shall not exceed 10 percent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the commission is paid are issued or an amount equivalent thereto. The Company (or the Board on behalf of the Company) may also on any issue of the shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful. Power to pay commission and brokerage
- 10. Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the Company may pay interest or returns on the amount of such share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in Section 130 of the Act, and charge the interest or returns paid to share capital as part of the cost of the construction or provision. Power to pay interest for share capital

DISPOSAL OF SHARES OF MEMBER WHOSE WHEREABOUTS UNKNON

11. If by the exercise of reasonable diligence the Company is unable to discover the whereabouts of a Member for a period of not less than ten (10) years from the date that the Company is first unable to trace such Member the Company may cause an advertisement to be published in a newspaper circulating in the place shown in the Register of Members as the address of the Member stating that the Company after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of the advertisement intends to transfer the shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance. Untraceable shareholders
12. If after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of the advertisement the whereabouts of the Member remains unknown, the Company may transfer the shares held by the Member in the Company to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance and for that purpose may execute for and on behalf of the Member a transfer of those shares to the Minister charged with responsibility for finance.

LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF CERTIFICATES

13. Subject to the provisions of the Act, if any share certificate or other documents of title to shares shall be defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, it may be renewed on such evidence being produced and a letter of indemnity (if required) being given by the shareholder, transferee, person entitled, and purchaser as the Directors shall require, and (in case of defacement or wearing out) on delivery of the old certificate and in any case on payment of such sum not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia Fifty (RM50.00) plus the stamp duty, if applicable, payable under the law for the time being in force, per certificate or such other sum as may from time to time be fixed by the Directors. In the case of destruction, loss or theft, a shareholder or person entitled to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear the loss and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigations by the Company to obtain the evidence of such destruction or loss. Lost or destroyed certificates

CERTIFICATES

14. Every share certificate of the Company upon application shall be issued under the Seal and bear the signatures or the autographic signatures reproduced by facsimile or other mechanical means of one Director and the Secretary, or a second Director or such other person as may be authorised by the Directors, and the Company shall, within sixty (60) days from receipt of an application for a certificate, send a share certificate specifying the shares to which it relates, and the amount paid up thereon, name of the Company, the class of the shares and the number of the relevant shares, provided that the Directors may by resolution determine that such signature, or either of them, shall be dispensed with. Issue of share certificates

CALLS AND LIEN ON SHARES

15. The Directors may, subject to the provisions of this Constitution from time to time and the conditions of allotment of shares, make such calls upon the Members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares as they think fit and each Member shall be liable to pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the Company in such manner and at the time and place appointed by the Directors. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed and such resolution may authorise the call to be paid by instalments. Calls

16. Subject to any special conditions on which any shares have been issued, each Member shall be liable to pay any call made on him and any instalment presently payable by him at the time and place appointed by the Directors.
17. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call or instalment payable in respect of a share is not paid, the holder or allottee of the share shall pay interest on the amount of the call at such rate not exceeding eight per centum (8%) per annum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment as the Directors may determine but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on unpaid calls
18. Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date, shall for all purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment the provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and the like, and all other relevant provisions of this Constitution shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided. Sums payable on allotment or fixed date deemed a call
19. The Directors may from time to time on the issue of shares differentiate between the holders of such shares as to the amount of calls or instalments to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls or instalments. Difference in arrangements as to calls
20. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys for the time being remaining uncalled and unpaid on his shares, and may pay interest or returns at such rate not exceeding eight per centum (8%) per annum as may be agreed upon between the Directors and Members upon the moneys so paid in advance, or upon so much thereof as from time to time remains in advance of the calls then made upon such shares, unless the Company in a general meeting otherwise directs. Any capital paid on the shares in advance of calls shall not whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profit. Interest on payments in advance of calls
21. No member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise any privileges as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him whether alone or jointly with any other person together with interest and expenses (if any). Calls to be fully paid before receiving dividend
22. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company's lien on shares and dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares, shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Members or deceased Member. Paramount lien
23. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may sell the shares subject to any such lien at such time or times and in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made until such time as the moneys in respect of which such lien exists or some part thereof are or is presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of which such lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, and until a demand and notice in writing stating the amount due or specifying the engagement and demanding payment or fulfilment or discharge thereof, and giving notice of intention to sell in default shall have been served on such Member or on the persons (if any) entitled to the shares by reason of his death or bankruptcy or winding up and default in payment, fulfilment or discharge shall have been made by him or them for fourteen (14) days after such notice. Enforcement of lien

24. To give effect of any sale, the Directors may authorise some person to transfer such shares to the purchaser who shall be registered as the Member comprised in any such transfer. Transfer on sale
25. No purchaser or Director shall be bound or concerned to inquire into the application of the purchase money or the regularity of the sale but the remedy of any one injured by a sale wrongly made in purported exercise of such power of sale shall be in damages against the Company only. Effect of sale
26. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of all moneys including accrued interest, charged on the shares by virtue of such lien and presently payable and subject to such payment the balance, if any, shall (subject to a similar lien for sums not presently payable as existed on the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person who was entitled to such shares immediately prior to the date of such sale, or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he may direct. Application of proceeds

INFORMATION ON SHAREHOLDING

27. (1) The Company may by notice in writing, require any Member, within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds any voting shares in the Company as beneficial owner or as trustee; and
 - (b) if he holds them as trustee, to indicate so far as it is possible to do so, the persons for whom he holds them by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable those persons to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (2) Where the Company is informed in pursuance of a notice given to any person under sub-section (1) hereof or under this sub-section, that any other person has an interest in any of the voting shares in the Company, the Company may by notice in writing require that other person within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice:-
- (a) to inform the Company whether he holds that interest as beneficial owner or as trustee; and
 - (b) if he holds it as trustee, to indicate so far as it is possible to do so, the person for whom he holds it by name and by other particulars sufficient to enable them to be identified and the nature of their interest.
- (3) The Company may by notice in writing require a Member to inform it, within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice, whether any of the voting rights carried by any voting shares in the Company held by him, are the subject of any agreement or arrangement under which another person is entitled to control his exercise of those rights and, if so, to give particulars of the agreement and the parties to it.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

28. (a) Subject to the restriction of this Constitution, shares shall be transferable but every transfer shall be in writing in the prescribed form pursuant to the Act, and shall be left at the Office accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence (if any) as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.
- (b) The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by both the transferor and the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Member as the case may be, in respect thereof. Transferor deemed holder until registered
29. The Directors may, in their absolute discretion, decline to register the transfer of any shares where the registration of the transfer is prohibited by law, or if the transfer is in respect of a share that is not a fully paid share or if the Company has a lien over the shares. Directors may refuse to register
30. The Company shall update the transfer in the Register of Member which shall be kept by the Secretary under the control of the Directors, and in which shall enter the particulars of every transfer or transmission of every share. Register of Transfers
31. The Register of Members and debenture holders may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding in the whole thirty (30) days in each year by giving at least fourteen (14) days' notice to the Registrar. The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:- Register may be closed
- (a) such fee, not exceeding Ringgit Malaysia Ten (RM10.00) as the Directors may from time to time determine is paid to the Company in respect thereof; and
- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.
32. The executors or administrators of a deceased shareholder not being one of several joint holders shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders the survivors shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share, but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share jointly held by him with other persons. Transmission on death of member
33. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or insolvency or winding up of a Member may upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors be registered as a Member in respect of the share or instead of being registered himself to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt or insolvent person could have made but the Directors shall in either case have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy or insolvency. Before recognising any executor or administrator, the Directors may require him to take out probate of the will or letters of administration as sufficient evidence. Production of evidence of title before registration

34. Where the registered holder of any share who is an individual dies or become bankrupt, his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall, upon the production of evidence as may from time to time be required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company or to voting or otherwise) as the registered holder would have been entitled to if he had not died or become bankrupt. Person entitled by transmission may receive dividend
35. When a person has been registered as a Member of the Company as a result of a transmission or where a Member of the Company has been adjudicated a bankrupt or where a Member of the Company being a corporation is the subject of a winding up order the Directors may call upon such person or the trustee in bankruptcy of such bankrupt Member or the liquidator in the winding up of such corporation to transfer the share or shares of the bankrupt Member to such Member of the Company (hereinafter called the "purchasing Member") as the Directors may think fit, within such time or times as shall be appointed by the Directors, the price (hereinafter called the "purchase money") to be paid for such shares shall be a fair value as certified by the auditor of the Company whose decision shall be final, and if such person or trustee in bankruptcy of such bankrupt Member or the liquidator in the winding up of such corporation shall fail to do so, the Directors shall have the right or power to cause such shares to be transferred to the purchasing Member and on such transfer or transfers being effected the Company shall hold the purchase money in trust for such person or the trustee in bankruptcy of such bankrupt Member or the liquidator in the winding up of such corporation but without interest. The receipt by the Company of the purchase money shall be a good discharge to the purchasing Member, and after his name has been entered in the Register in purported exercise of the aforesaid power the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person. In so certifying the value of each share the auditor shall be considered to be acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator and accordingly the Arbitration Ordinance shall not apply. Directors may call for transmission of shares of deceased and bankrupt members

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

36. If any Members fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on him or on the person entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or instalment, or such part thereof as shall then be unpaid together with interest or compensation thereon not exceeding eight per centum (8%) per annum from the day appointed for the payment of the sum of the time to the time of actual payment as the Directors may determine and any expenses that may have accrued by reason of such non-payment. Notice to be given of intended forfeiture
37. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment, or such part as aforesaid, and all interest and expenses that have accrued by reason of such non-payment are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which such call was made or instalments paid will be liable to be forfeited. Particulars to be set out in notice

38. If the requirements of any such notice aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter before the payment required by the notice has been made be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. A forfeiture of shares shall include all dividends in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture notwithstanding that they shall have been declared. Forfeiture on non-compliance to be by resolution of Directors
39. When any share has been forfeited in accordance with this Constitution notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to the share by transmission and an entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members opposite to the share. Notice of forfeiture to be given and entered in Register of Members
40. Every share which shall be forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the Company and may be either cancelled or sold or re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before such forfeiture the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit. If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls, accrued interest and expenses shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. Shares forfeited belong to the Company
41. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid the Directors may at any time before the forfeited share has been otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon payment of all calls and compensation due and expenses incurred in respect of the share and upon such further terms (if any) as they shall see fit. Amendment of forfeiture
42. A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture remain liable to pay the Company all calls made and not paid on such shares which at the date of forfeiture was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares together with interest or compensation at the rate of eight per centum (8%) per annum from the date of forfeiture for the time being unpaid if the Directors think fit to enforce payment of the interest or compensation, and to satisfy all (if any) the claims and demands which the Company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the date of forfeiture. Calls and expenses recoverable after forfeiture
43. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the date of the forfeiture of all interest or compensation in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the shareholder whose share is forfeited and the Company except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved or as are by the Act given or imposed in the case of past Members. Consequence of forfeiture

44. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Secretary of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien on a date stated in the declaration shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated and such declaration, together with the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such share upon a proper transfer being delivered to the Company, and his name shall be entered in the Register of Members and thereupon he shall be deemed the holder of such share discharged from all calls or instalments or other sums due prior to such purchase and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by an act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share. The Directors may authorise any person to execute a transfer of any share so sold to the purchaser.

Statutory declaration in writing to be conclusive evidence of facts of forfeiture and consequences

CAPITAL

45. Subject to the conditions, restrictions and limitations expressed in this Constitution and to any special rights attached to any shares for the time being issued, and save and except otherwise provided under the Act, the Directors may with the approval of the Company in general meeting allot shares, grant right to subscribe for shares in the Company, or grant options over or otherwise dispose of the unissued shares of the Company to such persons, at such time and on such terms as they think proper, PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT:-
- (a) no shares shall be issued which shall have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Company without the prior approval of the Company in general meeting;
 - (b) in the case of shares other than ordinary shares, no special rights shall be attached until the same have been expressed in this Constitution;
 - (c) no Director shall participate in a share scheme for employees unless the shareholders in general meeting have approved of the specific allotment to be made to such Director.

Issue of shares

46. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any share or class of shares already issued, but subject to the Act and this Constitution any shares in the Company (whether forming part of the original capital or not) may be issued or have attached thereto such preferred, deferred or other special rights, or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise, as the Company may from time to time by special resolution determine. Subject to the Act, any preference shares may be issued on the terms that they are, at maturity or at the option of the Company, liable to be redeemed.

Power to issue preference shares

ALTERATION, REDUCTION AND INCREASE OF CAPITAL

47. Subject to the Act, the Company may from time to time alter its share capital in any one or more of the following ways by passing an ordinary resolution to:-
- (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived;

Consolidation sub-division and cancellation of shares

- (b) convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock and may reconvert that stock into paid-up shares; or
- (c) subdivide its shares or any of them, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived.

48. The Company may from time to time by special resolution reduce its share capital in any manner authorised by the Act and subject to any consent required by law. Reduction of share capital
49. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting of the Company whether all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully called up or not, increase its capital by the issuance of new shares, such aggregate increase to be of such amount and to be divided into shares of such respective amounts as the Company in general meeting may direct. Company may increase its capital
50. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, all new shares or other convertible securities, shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company or general meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or securities to which they are entitled. Such offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of such time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or securities in such manner as they consider beneficial to the Company. New shares to be offered to Members in proportion to their holdings
- The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new share or security which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or securities bear to shares or securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or securities or by reason of any other difficulty in apportioning the same) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered in manner herein before provided.
- Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the allottee thereof in favour of some other person.
51. Except so far as otherwise provided by the condition of issue, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original ordinary share capital of the Company and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as if it had been part of such capital. New shares subject to same provisions as original shares

ALTERATION OF RIGHTS

52. If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders or not less than three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the total voting rights of the shareholders in that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be Members or any Member holding or representing by proxy one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the total voting rights in that class and that any holder of shares of that class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. To every such special resolution the provisions of Section 292 of the Act shall, with such adaptations as are necessary, apply. PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing if obtained from three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the holders of shares of the class concerned within two (2) months of the meeting shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution carried at the meeting.
- Alteration of rights*

GENERAL MEETING

53. The Directors shall convene an Annual General Meeting to be held once at least in every calendar year at such time, within six (6) months of the Company's financial year end and not being more than fifteen (15) months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting, but so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen (18) months of its incorporation, it need not hold one in the year of its incorporation, or in the following year, and at such place as may be determined by the Directors.
- Annual General Meeting*
54. Every General Meeting of the Company other than the "Annual General Meeting" shall be called "Extraordinary General Meeting".
- Extraordinary General Meeting*
55. The Directors may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on any requisition made in accordance with the provisions of the Act, or if the Company makes default in convening a meeting in compliance with a requisition made in accordance to the Act, a meeting may be convened by such requisitionists in the manner provided in the Act. Any meeting convened by the requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by Directors.
56. Subject to the provision of the Act relating to acts for shorter notice, at least fourteen (14) days' notice before the meeting or at least twenty-one (21) days' before the meeting where any special resolution is to be proposed or where it is an Annual General Meeting shall be given to all Members (other than those who under the provisions of this Constitution or the terms of issue of the shares held by them are not entitled to receive notices of general meetings of the Company). The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given.
- Notice of Meeting*

57. Notice of a meeting of Members of the Company shall state the place, date and time of the meeting, the general nature of the business of the meeting, and may include text of any proposed resolution and other information as the Directors deemed fit. Any notice of a meeting called to consider special business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect of any proposed resolution in respect of such special business.
- Contents of Notice*
- All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, except the following which shall be ordinary business:
- (1) the laying of the audited financial statements and the reports of the Directors and auditors and other accounts and documents required to be annexed to the financial statements;
 - (2) the appointment and re-election of Directors in place of those retiring by rotation or otherwise and fixing the Directors' fees and benefits payable; and
 - (3) the appointment or re-appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.
58. A meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called by notice shorter than is required by Clause 56 be deemed to be duly called if it is so agreed:-
- Short notice*
- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; or
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote thereat, being a majority which together holds not less than ninety-five per centum (95%) in the number of the shares giving a right to attend and vote at the meeting, excluding any shares in the Company held as treasury shares.
59. Where by the Act special notice is required of a resolution, the resolution shall not be effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the Company not less than twenty-eight (28) days before the meeting at which it is moved, and the Company shall give its Members notice of any such resolution at the same time and in the same manner as it gives notice of the meeting or if that is not practicable shall give them notice of any such resolution not less than fourteen (14) days before the meeting, but if after notice of the intention to move such a resolution has been given to the Company, a meeting is called on a date twenty-eight (28) days or less after the notice has been given, the notice, although not given to the Company within the time required by this Clause, shall be deemed to be properly given.
- Resolution requiring special notice*
60. In every notice calling a meeting of the Company, there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint not more than two (2) proxies to attend and vote instead of him, provided that the Member specifies the proportion of the Member's shareholdings to be represented by each proxy.
- Right to appoint proxy*
61. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any Member shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings held at any such meetings.
- Omission to give notice*

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

62. All business transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special business save for the ordinary business as set out in Clause 57. Special business
63. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Two Members personally present shall form a quorum. For the purpose of this Clause "Member" includes a person attending by proxy or in the case of corporations which are Members, present by their representatives appointed pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution and entitled to vote. Quorum
64. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place (or if that day be a public holiday then to the next business day following such public holiday) or to such other day, time and place as the Directors may by notice to the Members appoint. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the adjourned meeting, any Member present shall be a quorum. Proceedings if quorum not present
65. The Chairman of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting but if at any meeting the Chairman shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the Directors present shall choose one (1) Director to act as Chairman of such meeting or if no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, the Members present shall choose some Member present to act as Chairman at such meeting. The election of Chairman shall be by a show of hands. Chairman of General Meeting
66. The Chairman may with the consent of any Meeting at which a quorum is present and shall, if so directed by the Meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place as the Meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, no Member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Chairman may adjourn meeting and notice of adjournment be given
67. Any Member entitled to be present and vote at a meeting may submit any resolution to any general meeting provided that at least five (5) days before the day appointed for the meeting he shall have served upon the Company a notice in writing signed by him containing the proposed resolution and stating his intention to submit the same. Member's notice to submit resolution
68. Upon receipt of any notice as mentioned in the last preceding Clause the Secretary shall in any case where the notice of intention is received before the notice of the meeting is issued, include it in the notice of the meeting and shall in any other case issues as quickly as possible to the Members entitled to notice of the meeting notice that such resolution will be proposed. Members entitled to notice of resolution
69. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands of person present and entitled to vote unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded:- Resolutions how carried

- (a) by the Chairman of the meeting; or
- (b) by at least three (3) Members present in person or by proxy; or
- (c) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- (d) by a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

A proxy shall be entitled to vote on a show of hands on any question at any general meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded (and the demand not withdrawn) or required, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been passed unanimously, or with a particular majority, or is lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn any time before the resolution is put to the vote of the meeting by the member demanding the poll.

Where a resolution is passed at an adjourned meeting of the Company or of holders of any class of shares, the resolution shall for all purposes be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed and not on any earlier date.

- 70. If a poll is duly demanded in the manner aforesaid it shall be taken either forthwith or after an interval or adjournment at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded, but a poll demanded on the election of the Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. Poll
- 71. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment. No poll on election of Chairman or adjournment
- 72. In the case of an equality of votes whether on a show of hands or at a poll at any general meeting of the Company, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote except when only two (2) Members form a quorum at a meeting or where only two (2) Members are competent to vote on the question at issue in which event the Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote and the question arising at the meeting shall be deemed to have been lost or not carried. Chairman has casting vote
- 73. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. Other business to continue if poll demanded

74. The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting shall be deemed also to confer authority to demand, or join in demanding a poll, and, for the purposes of Clause 69, a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be the same as a demand by the Member. Proxy may demand poll
75. If any votes shall have been counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the result of the voting unless it be pointed out at the same meeting or at any adjournment thereof and unless in the opinion of the Chairman at the meeting or any adjournment thereof as the case may be, it shall be of sufficient importance to vitiate the result of the voting. Votes counted in error
76. Subject to the Act, a resolution in writing signed by the requisite majority of the Members entitled to vote on a written resolution, as provided in the Act, shall be valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a meeting of the Company duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Members. In the case of a corporation which is a Member of the Company, such resolution may be signed on its behalf by its Managing Director or by any person (whether identified by name or by reference to the holding of any particular office) duly authorised by such corporate body by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by Power of Attorney to sign resolution on its behalf. Resolution signed by members
- Any such document may be accepted as sufficiently signed by a Member if transmitted to the Company by any technology purporting to include a signature of the Member.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

77. (1) Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares and Clause 56 above, at meetings of Members or classes of Members, each Member shall be entitled to be present and to vote at any general meeting of the Company either personally or by proxy or if the Member is a corporation by its duly authorised representative, and to be reckoned in a quorum in respect of any share or shares upon which all calls due to the Company have been paid. Rights to vote
- (2) Subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting attached to any class or classes of shares by or in accordance with this Constitution, on a show of hands every person present who is a Member or a Member's representative or proxy shall have one vote and in the case of a vote on a resolution on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy or other duly authorised representative shall have one (1) vote for every share held by him. A person entitled to more than one (1) vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses on a poll in the same way.
78. (1) If any member be an infant or a lunatic, or of unsound mind, he may vote by his guardian, committee, receiver, curator bonis or other legal curator, and such last mentioned persons may give their votes either personally or by proxy. Provided such evidence as the Directors may require of the authority of the person claiming to vote shall have been deposited at the Office not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting. Voting of infant Members, etc

- (2) The legal personal representative of a deceased Member or other person entitled under the transmission Clauses to any share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any Member may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he was the registered holder of such shares provided that forty-eight (48) hours at least before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be at which he proposes to vote he shall satisfy the Directors of his right to any share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any Member unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote in respect thereof. Where there are several executors or administrators of a deceased Member in whose names any shares are registered any one of such administrator or executor may vote in respect of such shares unless any other administrator or executor is present at the Meeting at which such a vote is tendered and objects to the same.
79. Any corporation which is a Member may by resolution of its Directors or other governing body authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) either at a particular meeting of the Company, or at all meetings of the Company or any class of Members and the person(s) so authorised shall in accordance with his authority and until his authority is revoked by the corporation be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member. Votes of corporation
80. Where there are joint registered holders of any shares, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy or by representative or by attorney, in respect of such share as if solely entitled thereto; and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting, personally or by proxy or by representative or by attorney, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the Register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Where there are several executors or administrators of a deceased Member in whose sole name any shares stand, any one of such executors or administrators may vote in respect of such shares unless any other of such executors or administrators is present at the meeting at which such a vote is tendered and objects to the vote. Votes of joint holders
81. Save as herein expressly provided, no person other than a Member duly registered and who shall have paid everything for the time being due from him and payable to the Company in respect of his shares shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question either personally or by proxy or as proxy for another Member or to be reckoned in a quorum at any General Meeting. Members only entitled to vote
82. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such Meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection shall be referred to the Chairman at the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive. Objections
83. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy or duly authorised representative and a Member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. A proxy or a duly authorised representative need not be a Member of the Company. Votes on poll

84. (1) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or if such appointor be a corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney of the corporation duly authorised and shall be deposited with the power of attorney or other authority (if any) at the Office or at such other place within Malaysia as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in such proxy proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the proxy shall not be treated as valid. An instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting shall be deemed to include the power to demand a poll on behalf of the appointor. Instrument appointing proxy to be in writing
- (2) A Member may by electronic communication appoint a proxy to vote for him at any meeting of the Company provided that:-
- (a) such electronic communication shall have been received at the office of the Company not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which the person named in such electronic communication, proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll where the poll is taken at a later time/date as decided by the Chairman of the meeting; and
- (b) the Directors are satisfied as to the genuineness of such electronic communication.
85. (a) A proxy may but need not be a Member of the Company. There shall be no restriction as to the qualification of the proxy. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall have the same right as the Member to speak at the meeting. Who may be proxy
- (b) Where a Member appoints more than one (1) proxy, the appointments shall be invalid unless he specifies the proportions of his holdings to be represented by each proxy in the instrument appointing the proxies.
- (c) The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at a meeting of the Company shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll, and for the purposes of Clause 69 a demand by a person as proxy for a Member shall be deemed to be the same as a demand by the Member.
86. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in such form or as the Directors may from time to time prescribe or approve. Form of proxy
87. A person entitled to vote on a poll at a meeting shall be deemed to be a person entitled to vote for the purpose of the Act.

88. Every power, right or privilege herein given in this Constitution to any Member of the Company to convene, attend, vote in, take part in, any meeting of the Company, may be exercised in the event of such Member being out of Malaysia by any attorney or attorneys duly appointed by such Member for the purpose, by a Power of Attorney produced at the office of the Company during business hours not less than two (2) days before the same is acted on. And any vote given or things done by such attorney or attorneys shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the Member giving such Power of Attorney by other means provided no intimation in writing of such death or revocation shall have been received at the Office of the Company before such vote is given or thing done.
- Members when abroad may be represented by duly appointed attorneys*

DIRECTORS

89. Subject always to the requirements of BNM and the Act, the number of Directors, shall not be less than three (3) or more than twelve (12) or such number as shall be determined by a general meeting.
- Appointment and number of Directors*
90. No person shall be eligible to be appointed or elected, re-appointed or re-elected, or to accept any appointment or election, or hold office as a Director who has been disqualified pursuant to the provisions of the Act, FSA or IFSA or any other applicable legislation.
- Eligibility*
91. In the event of any casual vacancy occurring and reducing the number of Directors below the aforesaid minimum, the remaining Directors, except in an emergency, may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to such minimum number, or to summon a general meeting of the Company but not for any other purpose.
- Number of Directors*
92. The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any other qualified person as Director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, but so that the total number of Directors shall not at any time exceed the maximum number fixed by or pursuant to Clause 89 but any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the conclusion of the next following Annual General Meeting of the Company, and shall then be eligible for re-election but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors who are to retire by rotation at that meeting.
- Appointment of Board of Directors*
93. A Director need not be a Member and shall not be required to hold any share qualification unless and until otherwise determined by the Company in general meeting. All Directors shall be entitled to receive notice of and attend all general meetings of the Company.
- Share Qualification of Directors*

- (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the FSA or the IFSA or any applicable legislation, any Director may, from time to time appoint any person to act as his alternate provided that (a) such person is not a Director of the Company, (b) such person does not act as an alternate for more than one Director of the Company and (c) the appointment is approved by a majority of the other members of the Board. The appointee, while he holds office as an Alternate Director, shall be entitled to notice of meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any meetings at which his appointor is not present and generally to perform all functions of his appointor as a Director in his absence. The Alternate Director shall not be entitled to be remunerated otherwise than out of the remuneration of the Director appointing him. Any appointment so made may be revoked at any time by the appointor and any appointment or revocation under this Clause shall be effected by notice in writing to be delivered to the Secretary of the Company. Alternate Director
- (2) An Alternate Director shall ipso facto cease to be an Alternate Director if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director otherwise than by retiring and being re-elected at the same meeting.
94. The fees of the Directors, and any benefits payable to the Directors in their capacity as Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries including any compensation for loss of employment of a Director or former Director shall be subject to annual shareholders' approval in general meeting. Such fees shall be divided among the Directors in such proportions and manner as they may agree. Such fees shall so far as a Director who is not an Executive Director is concerned be by way of a fixed sum and not by way of a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover, subject always however to the other provisions of this Constitution. Salaries payable to executive directors may not include a commission on or percentage of turnover. Director's fees
95. (1) The Directors shall be entitled to be repaid all travelling or such reasonable expenses as may be incurred in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or of any Committee of Directors or general meetings or otherwise howsoever in or about the business of the Company in the course of the performance of their duties as Directors. Expense and extra Remuneration
- (2) Any Director, who is appointed as an Executive Director or to any executive office or serves on any committee or who otherwise performs or renders services, which in the opinion of the majority of the Directors are outside his ordinary duties as a Director, may be paid such extra remuneration as the Directors may determine PROVIDED THAT such remuneration shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover. Any extra remuneration payable to a non-executive director shall also not include a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover.
- (3) In this Constitution, the expression "executive director" shall include a Director who is engaged substantially in the business of the Company.

96. The Directors shall have power and shall be deemed always to have had power to establish and maintain and to concur with related companies in establishing and maintaining any schemes or funds for providing pensions, sickness or compassionate allowance, life assurances or other benefits for staff (including any Director for the time being holding any executive office or any office of profit in the Company) or employees of the Company or any such related company and for the widows or other dependants of such persons and to make contributions out of the Company's moneys for any such schemes or funds. Funds
97. A Director shall at all times exercise his powers in accordance with the Act and the FSA or the IFSA, where applicable, for a proper purpose and in good faith, in the best interest of the Company and exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence in the discharge of the duties of his office and shall not, without the consent or ratification of a general meeting, make use of any property of the Company, any information acquired by virtue of his position as a Director or officer of the Company, any opportunity of the Company which he became aware of, in the performance of his functions as the Director or officer of the Company or engage in business which is in competition with the Company, to gain directly or indirectly a benefit for himself or for any other person or to cause detriment to the Company. As to the duty and liability of Directors
98. Every Director shall give notice to the Company of such events and matters relating to himself as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Company and its officers to comply with the requirements of the Act. General duty to make disclosure
99. Every Director shall comply with the provisions of the Act, FSA, IFSA and any other applicable legislation, in connection with the disclosure of his shareholding and interest in any contract or proposed contract, or in any material transaction or material arrangement with the Company and in connection with the disclosure of the fact and the nature, character and extent of any office or possession of any property whereby whether directly or indirectly duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duty or interest as a Director of the Company. Disclosure of shareholdings interests
100. The Company shall keep a register showing with respect to Directors the information and particulars required under the Act. Register of Directors' Shareholdings
101. No Director shall be disqualified by his office from holding any office or place of profit (other than the office of Auditors) under the Company or under any company in which the Company shall be a shareholder or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any Director be liable to account to the Company for any profit arising from any such office or place of profit or realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relations thereby established but the nature of his interests must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration if his interest then exists, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of his interests. If a Director becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made or entered into the disclosure of his interest shall be made at the first meeting of the Directors held after he becomes so interested. No Director shall participate or vote on any contract, arrangement or transaction or proposed contract, arrangement or transaction in which he is directly or indirectly interested or any matter arising thereon and if he votes, his vote shall not be counted. Provided that this Clause shall not apply to:- Director's contract with other company, etc.

- (a) any arrangement for giving to him any indemnity in respect of obligations undertaken by him for the benefit of the Company; or
- (b) any contract, arrangement or transaction or proposed contract, arrangement or transaction with any other company in which, he is interested only as a Director and shareholder not more than the number or value as is required to qualify him for the appointment as a Director or having an interest in not more than five per centum (5%) of the paid-up capital in that company.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS (“CEO”)/MANAGING DIRECTORS/ EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

102. The Directors may from time to time appoint any one or more of their body to be the CEO, Managing Director(s) or Executive Director(s) for such period and upon such terms as they think fit and where such appointment is for a fixed term, the term shall not exceed five (5) years, and may vest in such persons such of the powers hereby vested in the Directors generally as they may think fit and subject thereto, shall always be under the control of the Board. Appointment of CEO, Managing Director/Executive Director
103. The remuneration of Managing Director/Executive Director shall from time to time be fixed by the Board and shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover. Remuneration of Managing Director/Executive Director
104. A Managing Director/Executive Director shall while he continues to hold such office, be subject to retirement by rotation, and he shall be reckoned as a Director for the purpose of determining the rotation or retirement of Directors or in fixing the number of Directors to retire, but he shall, subject to provisions of any contract between him and the Company, be subject to the same provisions as to resignation and removal as the other Directors of the Company and if he ceases to hold the office of Director from any cause, he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director/Executive Director. Resignation and removal of Managing Director/Executive Director

VACATION OF OFFICE OF DIRECTORS

105. Subject as otherwise provided and to the terms of any subsisting agreement, the office of a Director shall be vacated if the Director:- Office of Directors how vacated
- (a) dies;
 - (b) has retired in accordance with the Act or this Constitution and is not re-elected, or ceases to be a Director by virtue of the Act;

- Power to authenticate documents*

DIVIDENDS AND RESERVE FUND

135. The Directors may from time to time declare and pay dividends including dividend-in-specie, out of profits of the Company if the Company is solvent. For this purpose, the Company is regarded as solvent if the Company is able to pay its debts as and when the debts become due within twelve (12) months immediately after the dividend is paid. No higher dividend shall be paid than is authorised by the Directors and the declaration of the Directors as to the amount of the net profits shall be conclusive.
- Dividend*
136. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained and to the rights of Members entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividend shall be paid to the Members in proportion to the amounts paid up on their shares. For the purposes of this Clause no amounts paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated as paid on such share. All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid up except that if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as if paid up (in whole or in part) as from a particular date or that it shall not rank for dividend declared in respect of any period or periods that share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
- Dividend in proportion to amounts paid up*
137. The Directors may, before authorising the payment of a dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company, such sums as they think proper as a reserve fund or reserve funds, which shall, at the discretion of the Directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for the gradual liquidation of any debt or liability of the Company or for repairing or maintaining any works connected with the business of the Company, or, as to the whole or in part, be applicable for equalising dividends, or for distribution by way of bonus among the Members of the Company for the time being on such terms and in such manner as the Company in General Meeting shall from time to time determine, and pending such application, the Directors may employ the sums from time to time so set apart as aforesaid in the business of the Company, or invest the same in such securities (other than the shares of the Company) as they may select. The Directors may also without placing the same to reserve from time to time carry forward such sums as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company.
- Creation of reserve fund and distribution of bonus*
138. (1) The Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any Member all sums of money (if any) immediately payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company held by him.

- (2) The Directors may retain any dividends or other moneys payable on or in respect of a share other than fully paid shares on which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debt, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
 - (3) The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon shares in respect of which any person is under the provisions as to the transmission of shares hereinbefore contained entitled to become a Member, or which any person is under those provisions entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall transfer the same.
 - (4) A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to carry dividend declared on such shares before the registration of the transfer.
139. Any authorisation by the Directors in relation to the declaration and payment of a dividend pursuant to Clause 135 may resolve that such dividend be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, or paid-up shares, debentures, or debenture stock of any other company, or in any one or more of such ways and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient, and fix the value for distribution of the specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Member upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors.
- Dividend paid by distribution in specie*
140. (1) Unless otherwise directed any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or warrants sent through the post to the last registered address of the Member or paid via electronic transfer of remittance to the bank account provided by the Member. Every cheque or warrant or electronic transfer of remittance shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent and the payment of such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer of remittance shall operate as a good discharge to the Company notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the same has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon has been forged. Every such cheque or warrant or electronic transfer of remittance shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented. No unpaid dividend or unpaid interest shall bear interest as against the Company.
- Dividend warrant may be sent by post and unpaid dividend to bear no interest*
- (2) The Company shall not be responsible for the loss of any cheque, draft, dividend warrant or postal order which shall be sent by post duly addressed to the member for whom it is intended.
 - (3) The Company may exercise the power to cease sending cheques for dividend entitlements or dividend warrants after the first occasion on which such a cheque or warrant is returned undelivered.
141. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of the profits or shall bear interest against the Company.
- Dividends payable from profits only*

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

142. The Company in General Meeting may upon the recommendation of the Directors resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution, and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportion on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid, or partly in the one way and partly in the other, and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution.

Capitalisation of profits

143. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid shall have been passed the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby, and all allotments, and issues of fully paid shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates, on the application by the Member or by payment in cash or otherwise as they think fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions, and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation, or (as the case may require) for the payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

144. The Directors shall cause proper accounting and other records to be kept and shall distribute copies of balance sheets and other documents as required by the Act and shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounting and other records of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of Members not being Directors, and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or paper of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Directors or by the Company in General Meeting.
