Hong Leong Assurance Extends COVID-19 Coverage until 31 December 2020

Petaling Jaya, 4 June 2020 – In light of the unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic, Hong Leong Assurance (HLA) has gone a step ahead to extend its Complimentary Dual Special Benefit Programme for COVID-19 until 31st December 2020, to ensure that customers and their families are adequately protected throughout this period of uncertainty.

Keeping customers' best interest at heart, the Complimentary Dual Special Benefit Programme for COVID-19 is offered to all policyholders who owned an individual medical plan should they be infected with COVID-19. This programme provides Hospitalisation Benefit of RM 200 per day for up to 30 days of hospitalisation upon confirmed COVID-19 diagnosis and placed under quarantine at any Ministry of Health's designated hospitals. In addition, a lump sum payment of RM10,000 is offered to the victim's family as Compassionate Benefit to face any unexpected events should death takes place.

Furthermore, this complimentary special benefit comes at no additional cost and is given in addition to our current medical benefits. Customers who have recently purchased any of our medical plans including the newly-launched HLA FIT 3 Medi-Income and HLA MediStarter Rider, during the duration of the programme are also eligible without a waiting period. This programme will be in effect immediately upon successful signing up of new policy.

HLA and Hong Leong MSIG Takaful have jointly pledged RM 1 Million to this programme, which began on 28 Feb and ends on 31 Dec 2020, or upon exhaustion of the RM 1 million fund, whichever earlier.

As one of Malaysia's leading insurers, this is HLA's way of going the extra mile in providing financial support to our valued customers and alleviate their worries in the event they are infected with COVID-19 at any point throughout the year.
